The BLUE and GOLD

FORE • WORD

Firm in their knowledge that Nebraska is a rich state in the heart of a great nation, and realizing fondly that Kearney is a hub of the mid-western prairies, students of the Blue and Gold have faced the trials of the past few years, and are again looking upon the future with hopeful and eager eyes.
There is a certain confidence in their abilities, a faith in their training, a bit of mid-western stamina, spirit and pride—and it is enough, for progress and success. Upon such a foundation, and with such reflections, the 1937 Blue and Gold was created, and in picturing the delights of this school year, we are symbolizing our confidence in a state's and community's future. We hope the book is steeped in those memories most pleasant, that it may prove truly representative, and our year together will not be forgotten.

OUR CAMPUS

Red bricked, modern equipped, Eva J. Case Hall is located on the northeast corner of the campus. Its luxurious receiving room and study rooms known to two hundred young college women each year, its phone number, 28051, known to another two hundred college men.

Weeping willows, water lilies, stone benches—a part of the green terraced sunken garden on the northern campus. Flanked by high hedges, a myriad of flowers bloom, as each spring and fall, the garden becomes the scene of many teas and receptions.

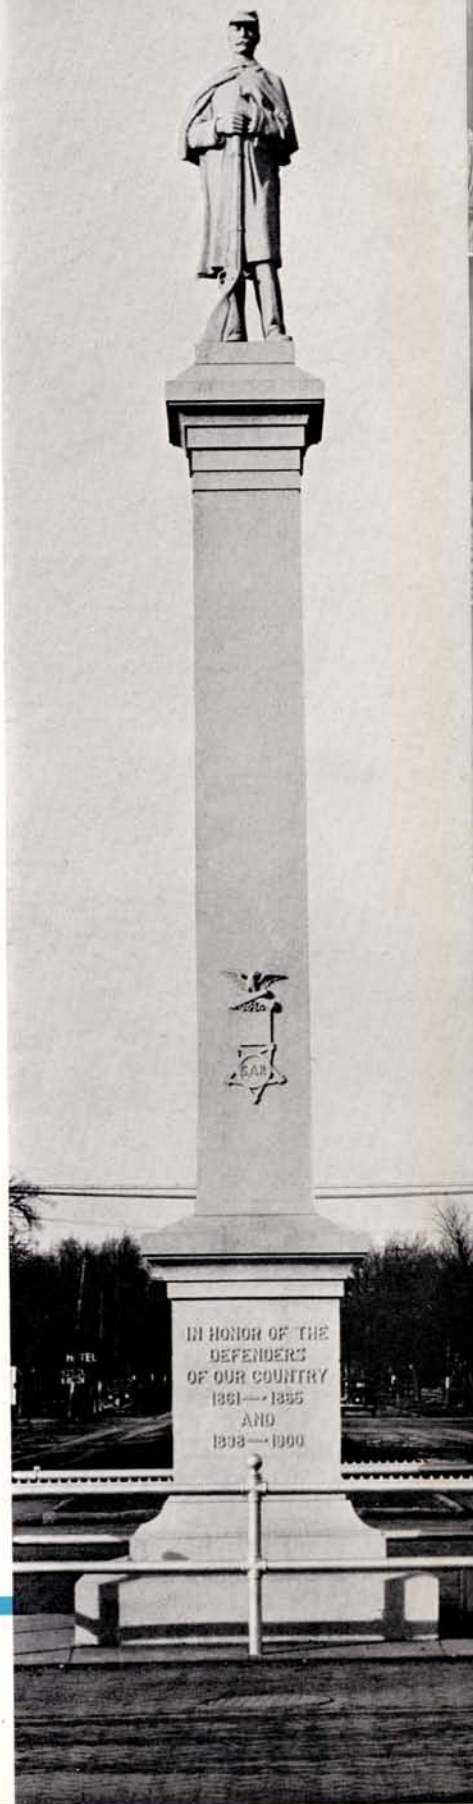

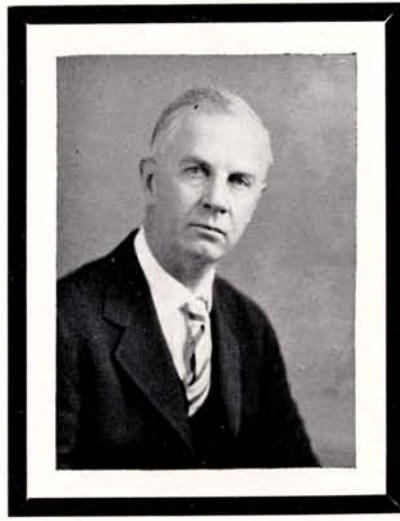

A tradition of Kearney, the shaded and green-gabled apartments of Green Terrace Hall have housed hundreds of college women since the founding of Kearney College. Here it is, as it overlooks the curbed parking of West 26th.

Seventeen hundred miles from either coast, a famous site of the old Oregon Trail, an important point on the new Lincoln Highway, home of historic Fort Kearney—that is the city of Kearney, where the largest of Nebraska State Teachers Colleges is located. The college is proud of Kearney, her history, her parks, her business district and residents, and for thirty-two years students have been happy to call Kearney, in Nebraska, home.

George
Ellsworth
Martin

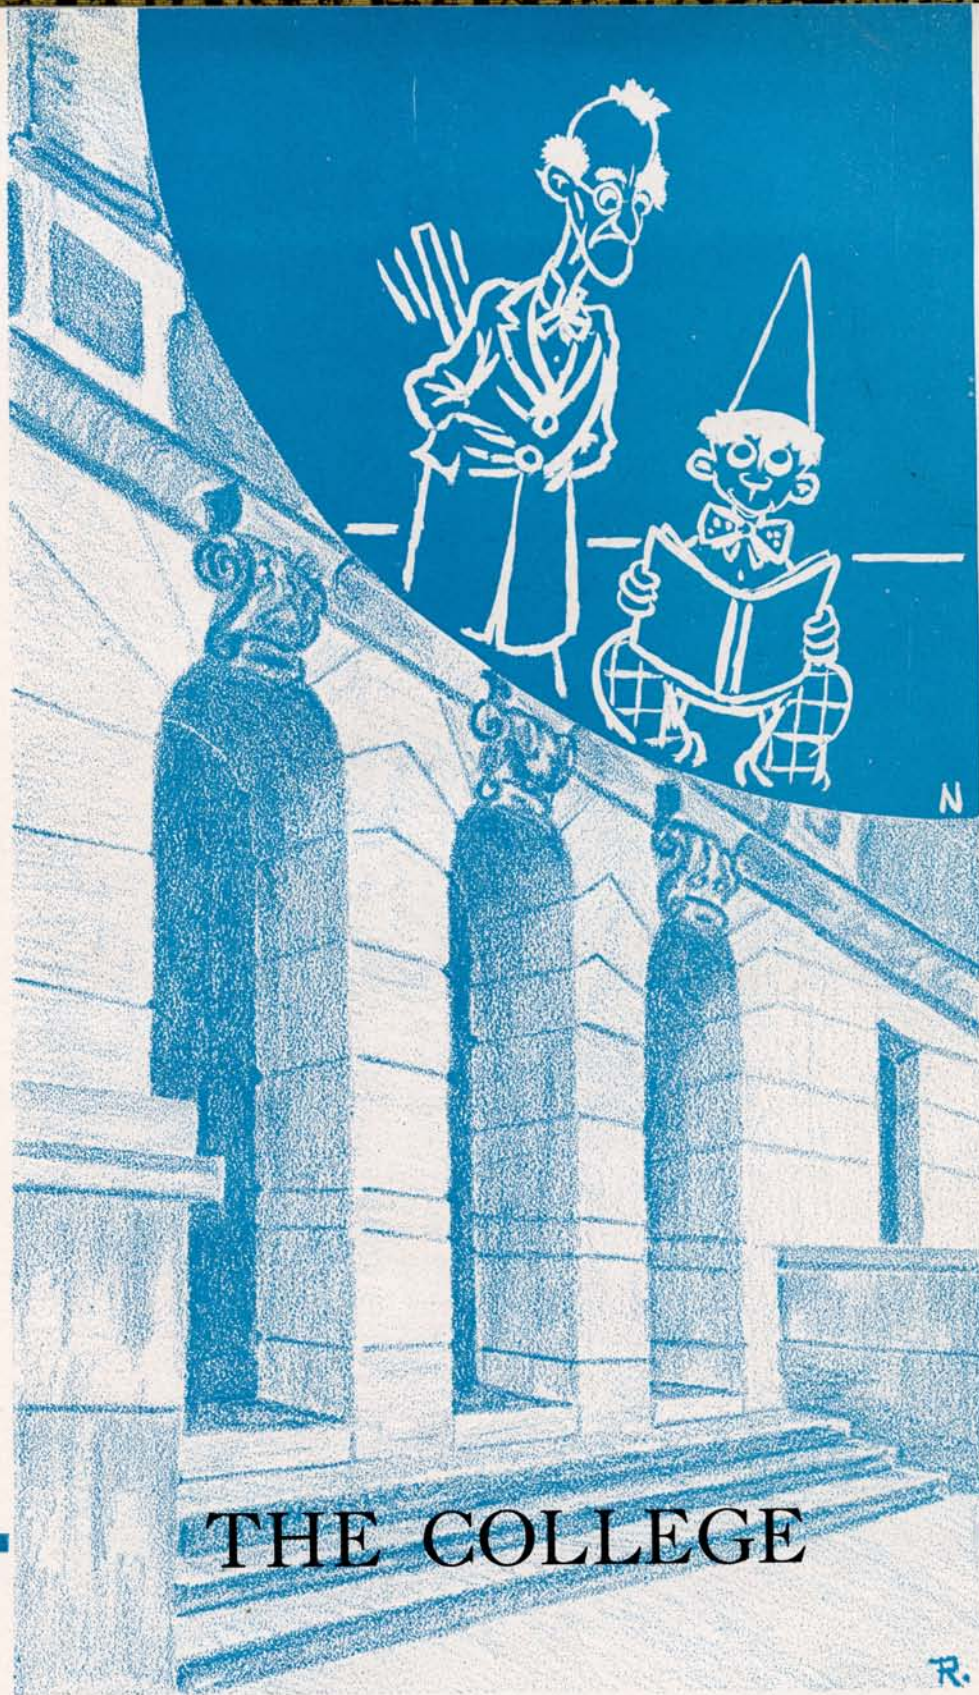

".....a kind gentleman whose patience and sympathy were never failing. Imbued from an early age with the idea that every boy and girl, rich and poor alike, ought to have an adequate opportunity to develop the talents which he or she possessed, he devoted, with infinite zeal, almost a half century to the cause of public education. An able executive, a diligent scholar, and above all, a master teacher, he contributed to the welfare of the State of Nebraska in a measure equalled by few of his contemporaries."

".....a master mind in the field of philosophy or literary interpretation... a true educator inspiring young people with great sympathetic interest."

".....Capacity of understanding human needs . . . one of his rare qualities a great mind which by wide reading and interpretation through life's experiences made him a peer in the intellectual world deep appreciation of music, poetry, and art . . . love for beauty everywhere."

*He held his place,
Held the long purpose like a growing tree,
Held on through blame and faltered not at praise,
And when he fell in whirlwin, he went down
As when a lordly cedar, green with boughs
Goes down with a great shout upon the hills,
And leaves a lonesome place against the sky.*

—Edwin Markham.

THE COLLEGE

A New Administration

It was necessary last October for the State Normal Board to choose a new president for the Nebraska State Teachers College at Kearney.

They found a man who had been prominent as a Nebraska educator for many years, one who had gained wide educational experience as a teacher, as a superintendent of schools, as a deputy superintendent of public instruction; whose successes as a farmer, cattleman, newspaper man, and secretary of the state department of agriculture had established him as the logical successor to the late President Martin.

Those affiliated with Kearney State Teachers College welcome Herbert L. Cushing as president of their college. They have found his policies sound and his philosophy good. This statement by Mr. Cushing as he took office expresses much of his viewpoint and understanding.

"I have a definite philosophy of education, but I have no thought of wrecking anything that has been established by years of thought and work on the part of those who have been here before me in order to satisfy any whim or fancy that I might have—"

Student Government Association

The Student Council is an outgrowth of the desire of the students of the college to govern themselves. As a group selected by the students to represent them, the Student Council's principal aim is to promote the welfare of these students. In carrying out this purpose the council seeks to encourage all worth while projects that make for a greater college, and endeavors to handle special administrative problems as they may arise.

As a part of the 1936-37 program, the council cooperated with the freshman orientation committee, sponsored the all-school mixer shortly after the beginning of the fall quarter, and published a student handbook containing a complete student and faculty directory. Later in the year, the council secured a regular office in which to conduct its business and keep its records, was given the service of a clerk from the N.Y.A. allotment, and embarked on a new venture, a weekly college radio program. The council also conducted a student questionnaire and submitted to President Cushing plans for the revision of the convocation system. These plans were approved by the faculty and put into effect the third quarter. Probably the outstanding project of the 1936-37 council is the sponsoring of the 1937 Blue and Gold.

The president and vice president of the Student Council are selected by popular vote, the secretary is chosen by the president, four representatives are elected from the student body at large, two representatives are chosen from each class, and two faculty members are chosen by the faculty as representatives. With the exception of the freshman class representatives, the council is elected in the spring preceding the regular school year.

The local student government association is affiliated with the NSFA and as a member of that organization sent Vernon Payne as representative to the national convention held in New York City during the Christmas holidays.

Again sweeping into prominence as one of the largest men's organizations on the campus, the Y. M. C. A. finished this school year as a member of the National S. C. M. movement, with a new recreation room for men in the main building, and with its athletic program a part of the college minor sport activity. The Y men sent a delegation to the state conference in March, and again this June are sending a large number to the 10 day regional conference in Estes Park, Colorado. The Kearney College unit is affiliated with the National Collegiate Y Association.

The purpose of the council is to promote better feeling and cooperation among the social fraternities and social sororities on the campus, and to improve the social life of the college.

Each quarter, the Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Scholarship plaque is awarded to the organization having the highest scholastic average.

Membership of the council is composed of the president and one other representative of each organization. Dean W. C. Bicknell is sponsor.

Always an important part of college life, the K.S.T.C. band has been even more prominent during the past year. Through the efforts of a special committee a drive was begun to uniform the band. The splendid support given by students, faculty, and business men made possible the purchase of thirty-five uniforms.

Under the capable direction of Professor Cerny, the band has played an especially important part in the success of Kearney teams by always being on hand for rallies and for football and basketball.

The Saint Cecilians, organized in the fall of 1931, was named after Saint Cecilia, the patron saint of music. As the only woman's vocal group on the campus, it functions mainly as a concert organization and provides training for potential music teachers and supervisors.

Under the direction of Mr. D. Ralph Appelman, the Saint Cecilians have presented several convocation programs and a formal concert with the Men's Ensemble in May. It has sponsored several prominent activities, including the Saint Cecilian all-school dance and the all-school carnival.

The A Capella Choir realized its second year of popularity, having increased its membership from thirty-five to sixty voices. This group is the schools busiest vocal organization. It appeared in convocation three times, sponsored two all-school dances, and helped in presenting the all-school carnival. The Choir enjoyed a brief tour during the month of March, appearing in such cities as Lexington, Cozad, Callaway, Arnold, Merna, Holdrege, and Minden. Two concerts at the World Theatre assisted the Choir in financing their many ventures.

Conference Champions

In Football

In Track

The 1937 Blue and Gold salutes its athletes. Topping all conference teams in football, winning many hard fought basketball games, cracking track records and winning another conference track title—the year '36-'37 found Kearney State at its best.

ATHLETICS

Antelopes Kill "Peruvian Jinx" For Second Conference Win

First Kearney Victory Over Peru In Nineteen Years

Kearney, Nebr., Oct. 21.—In this track meet, the Kearney Antelopes skinned the Peru Bobcats to the tune of 59-0 Friday night on the college gridiron.

Kearney was off to a flying start. When Peru kicked, Kearney started a drive which terminated with Parilek going over the the score.

Kearney kicked off and the Cats carried the ball to the Kearney 14 where the Antelopes held. Ron Lewis then took the ball and skipped through a host of tacklers 86 yards to score standing up.

From then on the game was all Kearney. The line charged fast on defense and carried out blocking nearly perfect. Scoring came easily.

After another march down the field with Adams carrying the ball across, Kearney again scored.

A Peru fumble with Larsen recovering set the pins for the next touchdown. On the first play Lewis skipped around the end to score again.

As the second half opened, Peru started a drive which ended when Lewis intercepted a pass and lateraled to Hinshaw who proceeded to carry to the Peru 40.

ANTELOPES LOSE OPENING HOME GAME TO NEBRASKA "B"

Kleinmen Fail to Click As the Huskers Turn On Heat

Kearney, Nebr., Sept. 25.—The Nebraska "B" team put on a dazzling offense and a rugged defense to spoil the Kearney Teachers opening home game of the season, winning by a margin of 26-2, Friday night on the College Athletic field.

The Huckers mixed laterals, spinners and forwards to put on one of the best offensives ever seen on the College gridiron. The Elymen masked the ball perfectly and had the Antelopes wondering where the ball was from the start to finish.

The Nebraskans soon showed their superiority when they took the ball in the opening quarter. With Quarterback White mixing his plays the Huckers carried the ball 83 yards for the first touchdown. After that it was all Nebraska.

The second touchdown came after a sustained drive of 52 yards with Plock taking the pigskin over.

KEARNEY WINS FROM BETHANY AT LINDSBURG

Team Shows Power In The Opening Game

Lindsburg, Kan., Sept. 10.—Led by John Parielk, who scored two touchdowns after long spectacular runs, the Kearney State Teachers college opened their 1936 season with a 19 to 7 victory over the Bethany College Swedes here last night.

The strong Kearney line had little trouble in stopping the Bethany running attack but expert passing by Ernest Ireland, flashy Swede quarterback, netted 258 yards. Fourteen passes clicked out of a possible 20.

The Swedes were a constant threat throughout the game but failed to score more than one tally due to the tight goal line defense by the Kearney line.

ANTELOPES BEAT WILDCATS, 31 TO 0

Make a Decisive Bid For the N. I. A. A. Crown

Wayne, Nebr., Oct. 16.—Flashing a tight defense and the best offense of the year the Kearney Teachers romped over Wayne college Friday night on the Wildcats' field by a score of 31-0.

The Antelopes opened their bid for the N. I. A. A. crown in fine style when they stopped everything Wayne had and held them to 62 yards by runshing. Kearney's pass defense also clicked, the Wildcats trying 17 forwards only to see three of them intercepted and only four completed.

Coach L. F. Klein came up with a real find when he inserted Harry Pitcaithley at quarterback Pitcaithley scored two of the Antelopes' touchdowns and ran the team in acceptable style.

The Kleinmen started a drive from their own 35 yard line which terminated in a touchdown, Adams going over for the score.

ANTELOPES CONQUER McPHERSON TEAM

Blue and Gold Gridders Out- scrap Kansans

Kearney, Nebr., Nov. 13.—With perfect football weather prevailing the Kearney Antelopes won their fifth straight game by defeating McPherson (Kansas) on the College Athletic field Friday night by a score of 27-7.

The Kansans started their shock troops in an attempt to wear down the heavy Kearney team, but their strategy failed and backfired on them when the Antelopes ran over two touchdowns in the initial period.

The second half opened with neither scoring in the third period most of it being a defensive game with both teams using plenty of reserves.

The final Kearney score came when a poor McPherson kick gave the Antelopes possession on the Kansas' 38. A pair of well executed passes, Lewis-Shoop, gained 24 yards and from this point Parilek swept around the end to tally.

Klein's Antelopes Beat Chadron And Win N.I.A.A. Championship

ANTELOPES BEAT CREIGHTON FROSH

Hard Fought Battle Ends In 12 To 0 Score

Kearney, Nebr., Oct. 28.—Playing in adverse weather conditions, the Kearney College defeated the Creighton freshmen of Omaha, 12-0 last Friday night before the smallest crowd out to witness a game this year.

With the wind playing havoc with the ball and making passing difficult, the Collegians had to rely on a fast hard running attack with Ron Lewis the spearhead.

A blocked Kearney punt with the Bluejays recovering on the Antelope 15-yard line, gave Creighton a chance to score, but after completing a pass for 10 yards the Kleinmen stiffened and took the ball on downs.

Score of 20 to 0 Completes 7th Win For Outstanding Kearney Squad

Kearney, Nebr., Nov. 28.—The Kearney State college football team completed its most successful season of several years on Thanksgiving day by defeating the Chadron Eagles 20-0.

The score is not indicative of the relative strength of the two teams which fought on almost even terms all through the game. Members of the Antelope squad attest to the toughness of the Chadron line.

By winning this game Kearney finished at the top in the N.I.A.A. conference and won this championship for the first time since 1931.

Playing their last football game for Kearney were: John Marrow, Clark Adams, and Charles Eisenhart.

ANTELOPES DEFEAT REGIS COLLEGE 74-0

Kearney Runs for Touchdowns As Rangers Hold Defensive

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7.—Turning the Regis College homecoming game into a rout the K. S. T. C. Antelopes swamped the Denver eleven 74-0 today.

With Taylor, a freshman, breaking into the lineup for the first time, scoring four touchdowns and the rest of the Antelopes performing in great style, the Teachers had little opposition from the smaller Rangers who were kept on the defensive a majority of the time.

Touchdowns by Parilek, Lewis, Taylor, Adams and Pitcaithley turned the game into a massacre.

In the final quarter a third and helpless Ranger squad saw an inspired Antelope reserve eleven score 41 point to complete the decisive victory.

HASTINGS DEFEATS ANTELOPES, 7 TO 0

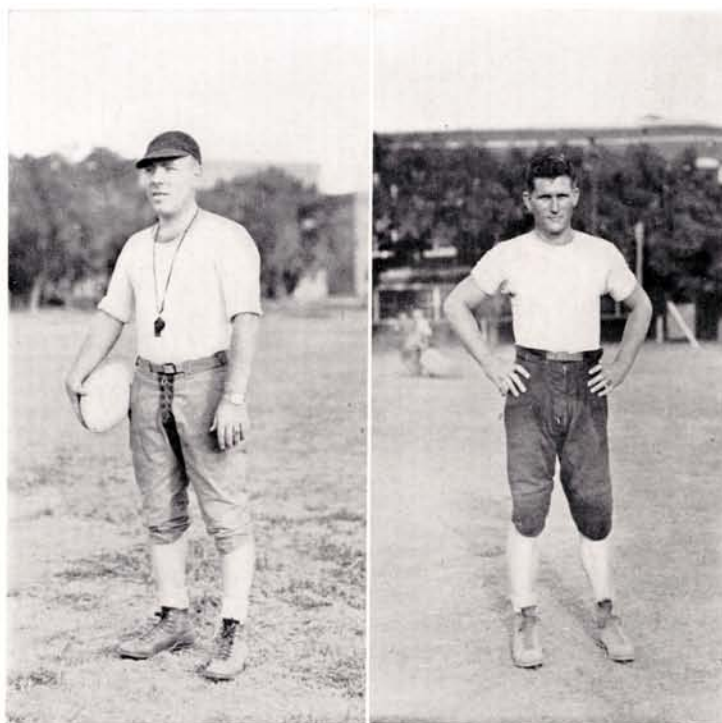

Hastings, Nebr., Oct. 9.—The Kearney Antelopes dropped their second successive game to a hard fighting Hastings eleven by a score of 7-0, Friday night on Hansen field, Hastings.

The Broncos took the advantage in the first quarter when they won the toss and had the wind at their backs. Kearney threatened early in the game but Hastings promptly kicked out of danger. From then on the Broncos were masters of the situation.

"Pop" Klein

Dan Partner

Winning Coaches--Winning Teams

Mr. L. F. Klein came to our campus in the summer of 1935 and has since become one of the best known figures about the college and the town. Two fine football machines, a track championship, and a fighting basketball squad have been the result of his coaching in these two short years.

Mr. Klein this year led the movement to uniform the band, and as a result, the college band played in uniform throughout the winter. His ability as a leader in social activities has added to his popularity, and his K Club gave some of the best parties of the season.

As athletic coach, "Pop" has added much to the prestige of the college and has turned out history-making teams of which we are proud.

Dan Partner, selected as line coach by Coach L. F. Klein to assist in the development of the 1936 football team, was an excellent choice. Congenial and well-liked, his complete knowledge of the game itself made Dan of distinct benefit to the team. He developed one of the finest lines in the history of the school and by far the best in state college circles.

He spent his undergraduate days at Kansas State College where he was one of their outstanding football stars and was chosen All Big Six guard. He was graduated from that school with honors in 1935.

Together, these two gentlemen gave Kearney a hard-fighting, fast stepping football team which in turn gave the college a record football season. Whipping old time rivals by decisive margins, meeting new teams on the schedule, and lambasting them accordingly, these two athletic wizards gave the conference a new champion.

Basketball

The Kearney College basketball team was not as successful as was the football team this year. Beginning the season with seemingly fair prospects for a championship team, they ended up in the conference cellar. Ineligibility, injuries and sickness combined to break down a team which originally had what it takes.

Although they won only 6 out of 17 games we are still proud of our Antelope basketball team. No team that beat them went away feeling that the Antelopes were "pushovers".

The Antelopes lost an early season game to Hebron and then came back into the win column the next week with victories over York and Nebraska "B". In the Nebraska "B" game the Kearney boys were distinct underdogs but due to the fine work of Pitcaithley and Church they won a close and exciting game from the "nubbins". Following the successful trip to Lincoln, the basketeers could win only four of the remaining games. They repeated over York, avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Hebron, and eked out a close one from Midland, a strong team in the N.C.A.C. conference.

Defeats were suffered from Omaha, a return game with Nebraska "B", Wayne, Western Union and Yankton in the Morningside tournament, and two each from Hastings, Peru, and Chadron.

Highlights of the season were victories over the highly "touted" Nebraska "B" quintet, Midland, always a leading team in Nebraska basketball circles and Wayne, co-holder of the NIAA championship.

The squad personnel included Harry Pitcaithley, John Parilek, Wayne Beck, Don Sturtevant, Earl Johnson, Bill Fiegenbaum, Glen Bartunek, Bernard Smith, Melvin Church, Paul Blessing, Bernard Davis, and Art Stegeman.

Track '36

The Antelope track squad began training with excellent prospects for a successful season. Built around the nucleus of ten returning lettermen, and strengthened by several freshmen from the large squad of fifty men, the track team did not disappoint us.

An early inter-class meet proved merely an opportunity for freshmen to show their wares as they ran away with 73½ points to win the contest. The sophomores were second with 42 points.

Whetted to the right tension by the inter-class meet the Antelopes met the York College Panthers and by totaling 86 2-3 points, easily won the dual meet held on the local track.

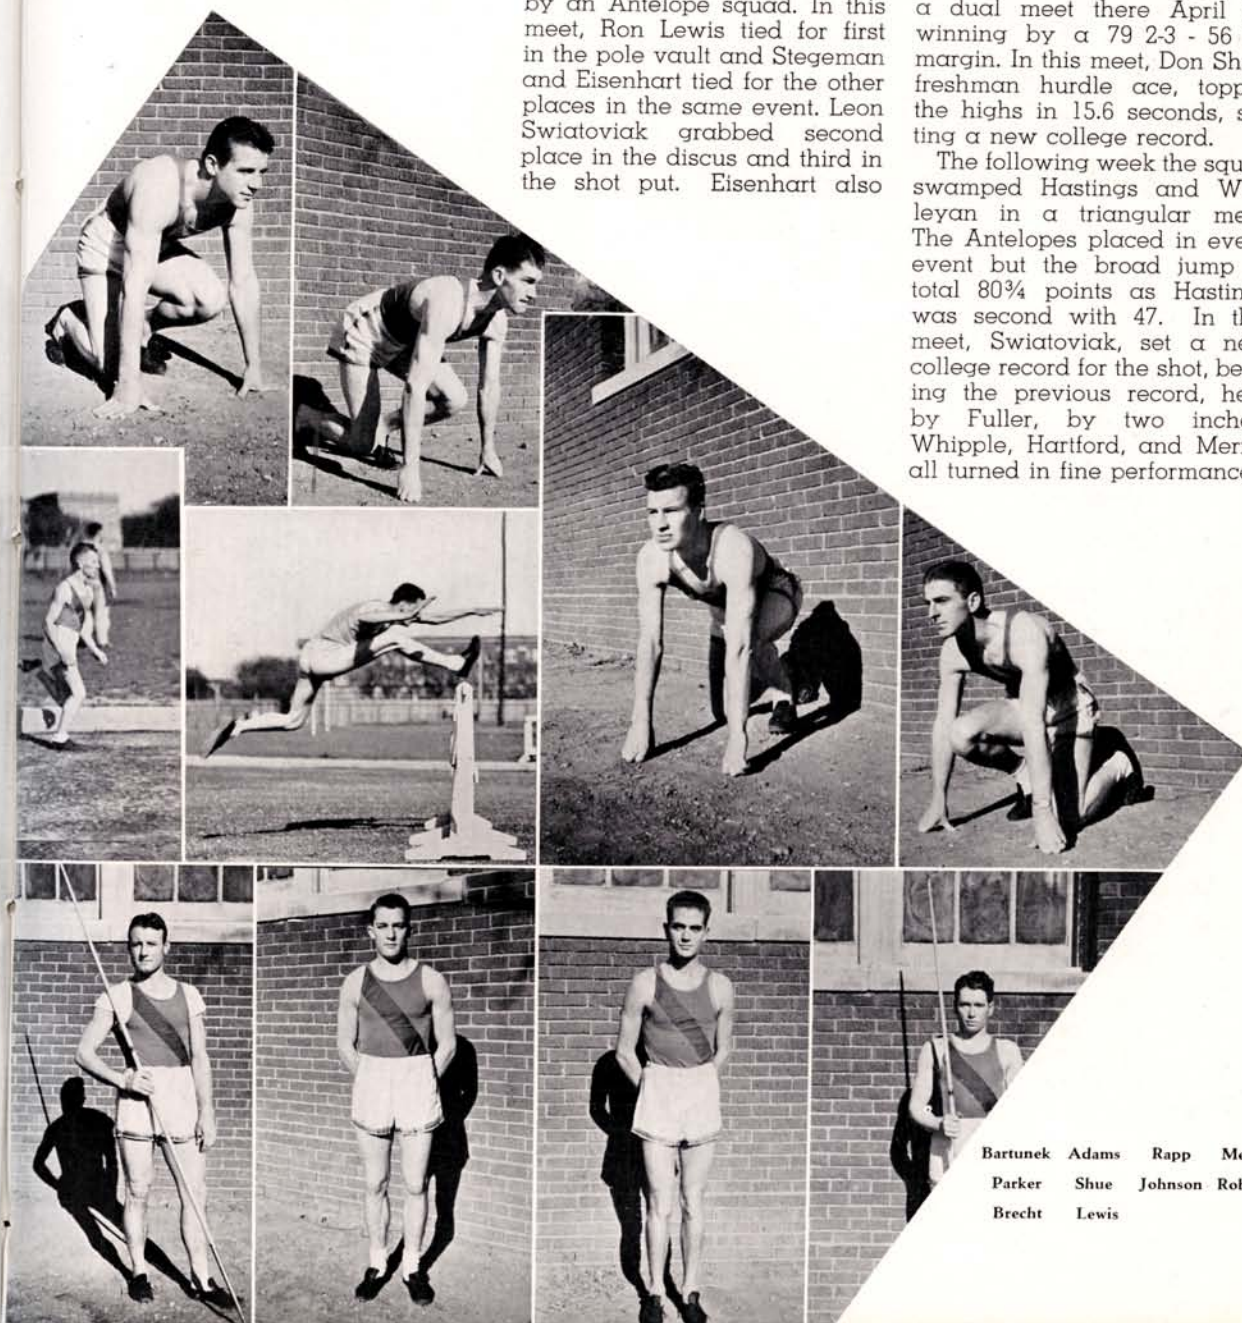

The next week the track squad traveled to the Hastings College relays and made one of the best showings ever made by an Antelope squad. In this meet, Ron Lewis tied for first in the pole vault and Stegeman and Eisenhart tied for the other places in the same event. Leon Swiatoviak grabbed second place in the discus and third in the shot put. Eisenhart also placed second in the javelin throw.

On April 16 the College squad lost a close decision in a dual meet with Fort Hays Teachers. The Antelopes scored 64 points in this meet and pushed the Kansas team to the limit.

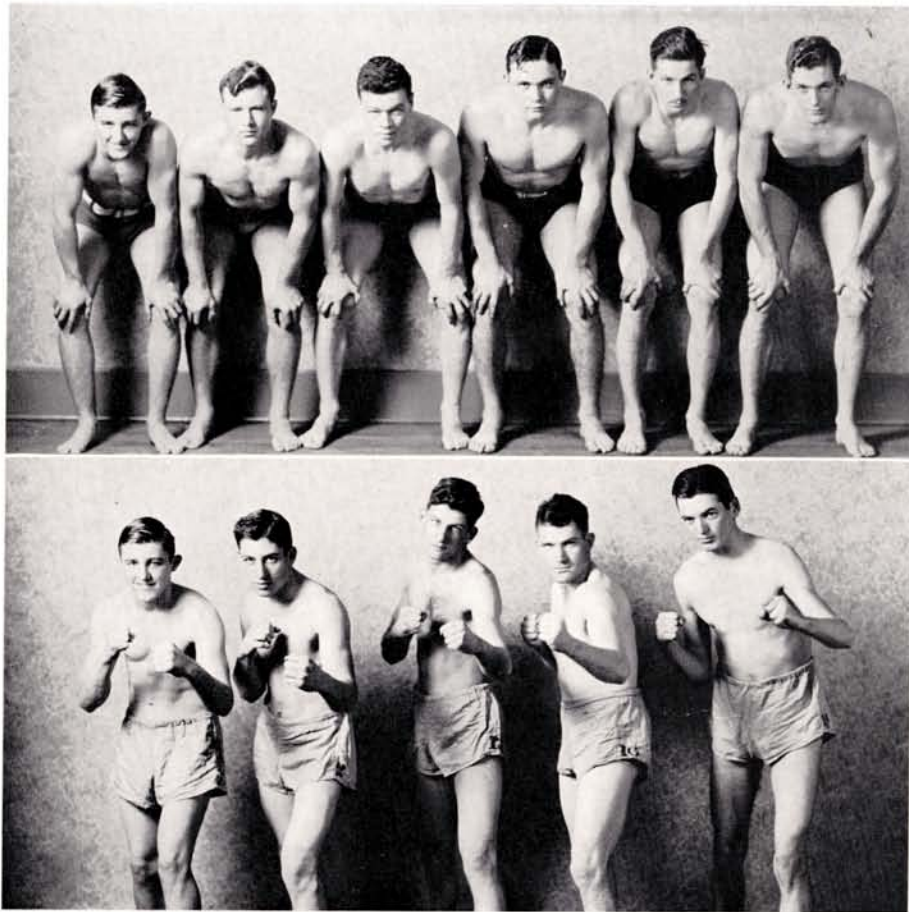

Scoring in every individual event and breaking even in two relays, Kearney upset the strong Doane College squad in a dual meet there April 22, winning by a 79 2-3 - 56 1-3 margin. In this meet, Don Shue, freshman hurdle ace, topped the highs in 15.6 seconds, setting a new college record.

The following week the squad swamped Hastings and Wesleyan in a triangular meet. The Antelopes placed in every event but the broad jump to total 80¼ points as Hastings was second with 47. In this meet, Swiatoviak, set a new college record for the shot, beating the previous record, held by Fuller, by two inches. Whipple, Hartford, and Merritt all turned in fine performances.

Swimming and Boxing Teams

Swimming Team—Carroll, Oran, Reddy, Hale, Fritsche, Waddell.
Boxing Team—Carroll, Scott, Whipple, Adams, Skinner.

These two sports, originally intra-mural pastimes, were introduced for the first time this year as minor sports at Kearney College. Under the direction of Coach Fulmer, the swimming team participated in two dual meets with Hastings College, and the boxing squad placed five men in Golden Gloves competition, sending Carroll, lightweight, and Scott, welter, to Omaha, where Scott lost a close decision in the second round, as did Carroll in the same round.

Both activities were popular with the students, and will be continued on even larger scales next year, as will tennis and golf, supplementing regular intra-mural competition. This year a twelve team intra-mural basketball league playing throughout the basketball season resulted in a championship for the Kibitzers, winning a close final over the Caledonians.

To the seniors—to those, who after four years of college work, will be eligible for graduation in May. To those who will find their sheepskin a beginning and a password to better jobs and greater success.

HONOR GRADUATES

From the spring graduating Class of 1937, five students were selected as the Honor Graduates of the year. Carefully selected by members of the faculty, these ranking seniors were outstanding in scholarship, extra-curricular activity, personality, and chances for success in teaching. The five graduates are recommended most highly by the college, and their recognition in this manner is much deserved.

Topped by green caps, four hundred freshmen entered Kearney College in September. Taking their torment in good grace, sponsoring their own parties—furnishing the zip for all-school rallies—the class of '40 is looking forward to their own grip on the paddle next year.

The A. O. Thomas School is maintained to provide prospective teachers, supervisors, and administrators the opportunity to study teaching under actual conditions.

It is organized and conducted so as to provide the finest and richest educational opportunities for the boys and girls privileged to attend it. It is staffed by a corps of highly trained and experienced supervisors each of whom has demonstrated superior ability in his field.

EGAR

*Also chosen by Bing Crosby in 1936. This junior's striking beauty placed her among
Kearney state's 1937 Beauty
Queens.*

Miss Elaine Malowney

A smiling freshman queen, whose personality and charm has increased her popularity throughout the year.

Miss Mildred Rusmisell

A talented beauty from Taylor, whose poise and sudden flashing smile will brighten the campus for two more years.

Miss Lois Hyde

Alert and vivacious, this smartly dressed Kearney
co-ed is also of the class of '40, whose beauty was recognized by Segar.

Miss Francis Elder

From a college's continual round of activity, the Blue and Gold presents living and doing students who represent group interests and college fun. From the laboratories, offices, and campus corners, these shots denote activity and are a fitting background for two popular senior girls, the May Queen and Maid of Honor of 1937.

Miss Myna Turner Maid of Honor

Above: Barney was surprised; Jayne Furse and Case Hall; the Smith-Elder combination; the "Art" of dunking; Garton, Kuns, and Tata relax; the snap editor's twinkling twin; Reed, Hoog, Haggard, Ransom—twilight hours; Gillespie, reason for position, unknown; one o'clock class; Sigma quins; home of the Y. W.

Miss Adnelle Barta, May Queen, 1937

Miss Adnelle Barta, above, was chosen from the Senior Class by the student body as May Queen of 1937. Miss Myna Turner, opposite page, was chosen Maid of Honor; their identity remaining a secret until their formal presentation at the annual May Fete on May 1. The selection of the May Queen and Maid of Honor is a tradition of Kearney College and each year emphasizes the popularity of two senior girls.

Above: Freshman orientation begins; house of the Caledonian; on the Avenue; honor grad Clark; typing artists; Bob, dean of music and yells; Larson on the steps of Green Terrace; classes are over—the sprint for the Club House; from the Ad Building.

The cook's day out; Payne must worry, now it's his hair; Oran still claims he's holding a snake; Reed poses from her desk; it takes a lot of heaving to prepare for a rally; Mrs. Hull leads an eight o'clock procession; Kearney wins by night; Mac is the Green Terrace chef, and a good one; this is what happened to the pole; Mex siestas; Case Hall's favorite weeping willow.

Lab; popular Miss Jennings reads and laughs; before the Peru Massacre; Steinberg plugs and listens; Missouri's own, Prof. Butts; Fullback Harris lays one on—somebody; four questionable Phi Taus; this IS informal.

McKerney, Chambers, and Case; Reynolds and Porter are Zippers; Kearney's own "Popeye" Fuller; Tarzanettes; the sports editor poses; leaving season; Fox is chemist; Watkins posed for this; Stovall and the shadow; Juanita quartette; Bursar Black smiles for the camera; Dr. Wieman of Chicago.

Mr. Elm; two popular Cals; Miss Carroll's library; from Fremont came Marsden and his pup; these two kids are now two of Kearney's more popular gals; it's a smooth job; Mr. Arnold and "Tuffy"; the college's popular baritone is also a physicist; the Atkison-Hawthorne combine; the Antelopes win often; Knights of the Broom and Duster.

KEARNEY MERCHANTS have aided in making possible the 1937 Blue and Gold. Their cooperation each year with the college is recognized and appreciated by the college staff and out-of-town students. Their courtesies, their advertising, and their employment of college help have materially helped the institution maintain her prestige. It is certain that the friendly relations between Kearney and her college will build for a better city and a better school.

In order to furnish the government with a new source of vital and utterly useless information, we have made our own I. Q. (Intellectual Quandry) test. The test was originally made out to distinguish between a moron and an idiot so we believe we are fairly safe in assuring you that everyone will receive a passing grade. Just fill out the blank and send it with the cover from a 1937 Blue and Gold to the Super-Spuds Potato Company somewhere in western Nebraska and you will receive a handsome, ultra-accurate, super-powered, nickle-plated, bean shooter, absolutely free. Fill in the test by placing a check in the proper parenthesis. Only the answers listed may be used—all others will be disqualified.

1. What's your name? Smith () Jones ()

2. Where do you live? Tent () Here today, gone tomorrow () cave () deceased ()
3. When did you matriculate in this college?

NONSENSE

'Twas a summer day in winter,
The frost was warm you bet;
Bareheaded men wore stiff soft hats,
The drys were wringing wet.

With steady steps he staggered,
As he ran standing still;
The bung hole he had swallowed,
Made him feel very ill.

'Twas midnite in the hangar,
No air was in the wind;
The airman grabbed a sunbeam,
And to the clouds he shinned.

"Little words are the sweetest to hear; little charities fly farthest, and stay longest on the wing; little lakes are the stillest; little hearts are the fullest, and little farms are the best tilled. Little books are read the most, and little songs the dearest loved. And when Nature would make anything especially rare and beautiful, she makes it little; like pearls, little diamonds, little dew. Agar's is a model prayer but then it is a little one; and the burden of the petition is for but little. The Sermon on the Mount is little, but the last dedication discourse was an hour long. Life is made up of littles; death is what remains of them all. Day is made up of little beams, and night is glorious with little stars."

Now that airplanes can fly 248 miles per hour, pedestrians should be glad they cannot walk on air.

Chemists are looking for a universal solvent, which after all is harder to find these days than an insolvent.

The scientist who has captured a prize for measuring the heat of the stars is wise enough not to try it on a ton of furnace coal.

SEE-SAW SCENE

The magician walked down to the footlights and asked a young lady to step up on the stage.

"Now, as a climax to my act, ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I am going to saw this young lady in two, right before your eyes."

The crowd cheered and stamped its feet.

"As is customary before doing this trick," he continued, "I'd like first to make sure that you all want to see—"

A thundering "Sure!"

"And there are no objections to my performing . . ."

A "No" that rocked the house.

"The girl's sorority sisters—do they object?"

"Not at all, to be sure."

"How about you?" he asked, turning to the girl. "Do you mind being sawed in two?"

The girl shook her head.

"Well, then," the magician said.

And he sawed the young lady in two.

We all thought it was funny as the dickens, but the police made quite a fuss about it.

And there was a goodly amount of quibbling and dither, when it was decided there should be a record of the yearly proceedings, to be known to the world as the 1937 Blue and Gold.

And it came to pass that a motley of script chasers were chosen to edit this bit of literary anaesthesia, and a flock of prospective chamber of commerce members were asked to make an exceeding profit for the publisher.

Behold, the plan proceedeth, and innumerable mugs were photographed and were putteth into print, and the fems boasting a comeliness even as to the roses of Canigou, were given an featured likeness aparte.

Verily, the kickers, the hurdlers, and throwers were included, and pieces of photography were inserted, and the booke breathed of life.

But it came to pass, (again) that as the editor putteth in the copy and slingeth the beef, and getteth away with it, that even as the half-backs kicked, so also did the subscribers, and pandemonium reigned, though the business manager continueth in profit making (for himself) and so it is now, as the sun shineth over the radish patches in May and the dust revolveth about an vacated club house, that the editor and business manager prepareth to hit for the border, and the subscribers continue to swing the hammer even unto the second and third generation.

(The man who wastes today lamenting yesterday will waste tomorrow lamenting today).

"Heave no sigh for things undone,
For the prize you might have won;
Don't bewail the yester-sun;
All your yesterdays are gone—
Gone!
Are you ready for today?
Roads are stretching far away;
You will stumble, you will stray,
You will have to pay your way—
Pay!
Mate thy staff and guide thy star;
Bush or stone be not thy bar;
How we fight is what we are;
Let your aim be onward far—
Far."

—Philip M. Raskin.

"Well-well, the world must turn upon its axis,
And all man-kind turn with it, heads or tails,
And live and die, make love and pay our taxes,
And as the veering wind shifts, shift our sails;
The King commands us, and the Doctor quacks us,
The Priest instructs, and so our life exhales:

Fighting, Devotion, Dust—perhaps a name."

"WOLF" LARSON

"Find your purpose and fling your life out into it; and the loftier your purpose is, the more sure you will be to make the world richer with every enrichment of yourself."

"Be good, sweet friend, and let who will be clever; Do noble deeds, not dream them all the day long; And make life, death, and that vast Forever, One grand, sweet song."

If movies cause all the wickedness now, what caused it in the old days when there were no movies?

Scientists say that the earth has fourteen movements. There are more than that among the radicals alone.

The best way to cure snake-bites with boot-leg whiskey is to let the snake drink it before he bites you.

Some plants thrive in the hot sun, but wild oats flourish most under the influence of moonshine.

THE PERFECT ALIBI

A huge white sphere, 200 feet in diameter, will be on view in New York's world fair in 1939. We certainly hope this will prove to be the only egg the fair will lay.

Once, an old Indian buck went to the big city for a visit. After spending a while observing the tall buildings, he went to a cafe to eat. When the waiter came for his order, the old buck ordered a slice of ham. When it was brought to him the Indian called the waiter, asking, "Did you slicum ham?" The waiter replied that he had and the old buck replied, disgustingly, "Ugh—almost miss 'em".

Tobacco is a dirty weed—
 It satisfies no moral need—
 It makes you fat, it makes you lean,
 It takes the hair right off your bean,
 It's the worst darn stuff I've ever seen—

I like it.

I like it.

I like it.

She: "Do the old grads have much fun at reunion?"

He: "Barrels of it, barrels of it."

Gentlemen: Since the lumber market has dropped, we've been bawled out, bottled up, held up, bull-dozed, black-jacked, walked on, cheated, swindled, squeezed; stuck for war tax, per cap tax, starvation tax, state tax, road tax, dog tax, syntax—our patience has been taxed; liberty bonds, baby bonds, bonds of matrimony, Red Cross, G. A. R., D. A. R., Women's Relief, Men's Relief, and other reliefs. We've been discussed and cussed, talked about and lied about, lied to, hung up and held down. I am inspected, suspected, examined and re-examined, informed, reformed, and commanded, so I don't know who I am, where I am, or why I am here; and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what in the hell is coming next.

Son: "Papa, what do you call a man who runs an auto?"

Dad: "It depends on how near he comes to hitting me."

Mr.: "Don't you feel a little chilly? Don't you think you'd better have something around you?"

Miss: "Well, let's wait until we get a little further out into the country anyway."

I T HAS BEEN A PLEASURE

To the Specialist in any field there is no satisfaction like the full co-operation which spells quality for the finished job. To the Staff, and to other members of the Graphic Arts with whom we share in the publication of a splendid Blue and Gold for 1937 we say again: Gentlemen, it has been a pleasure!
