In Memoriam . . .

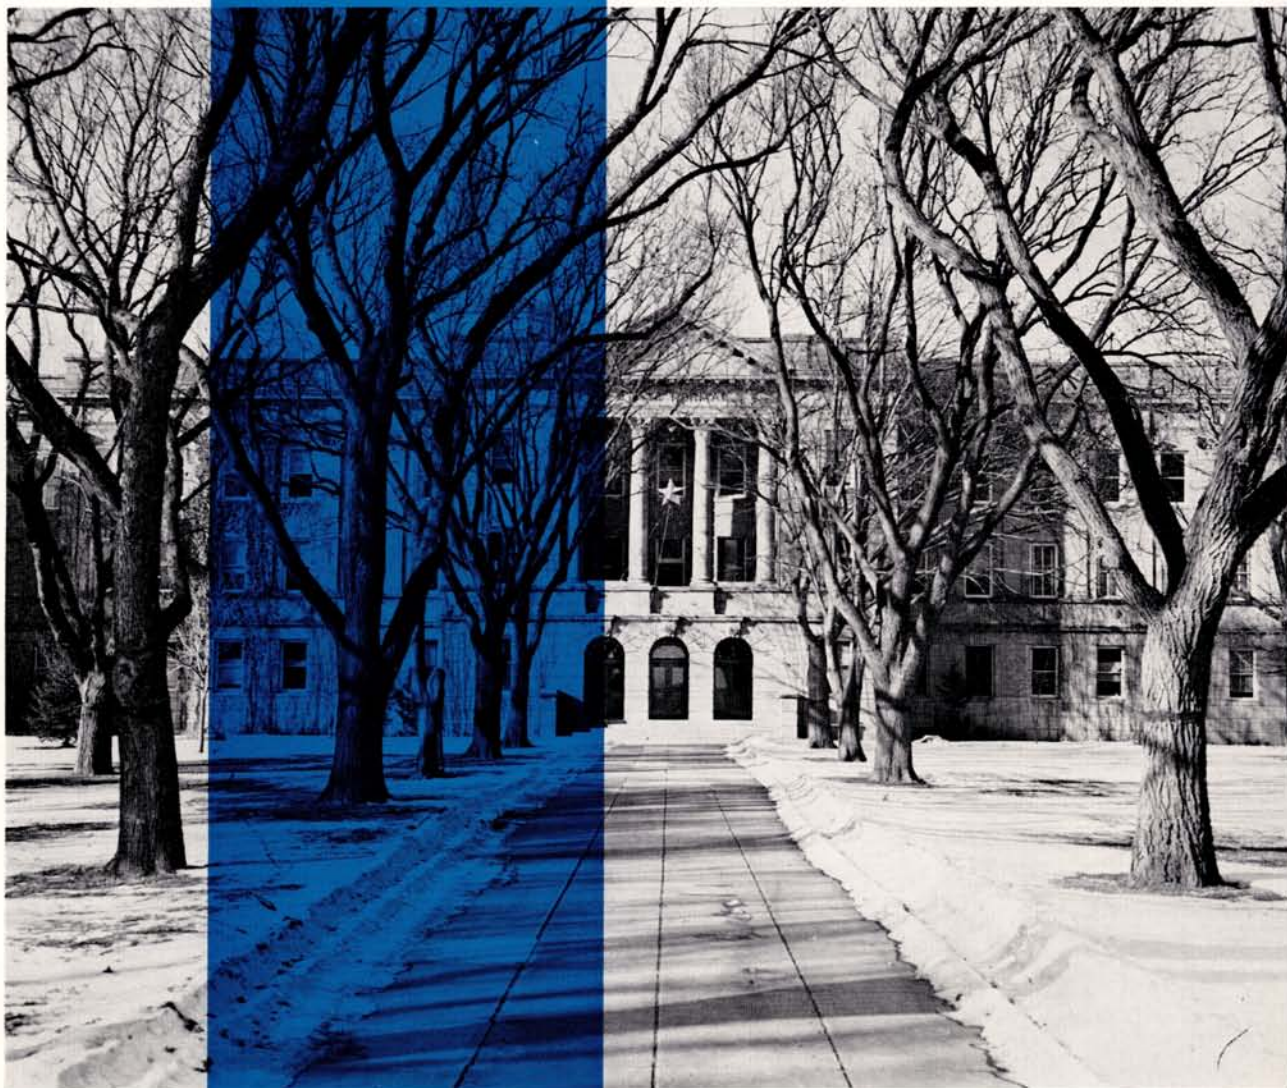

Leonard Webb

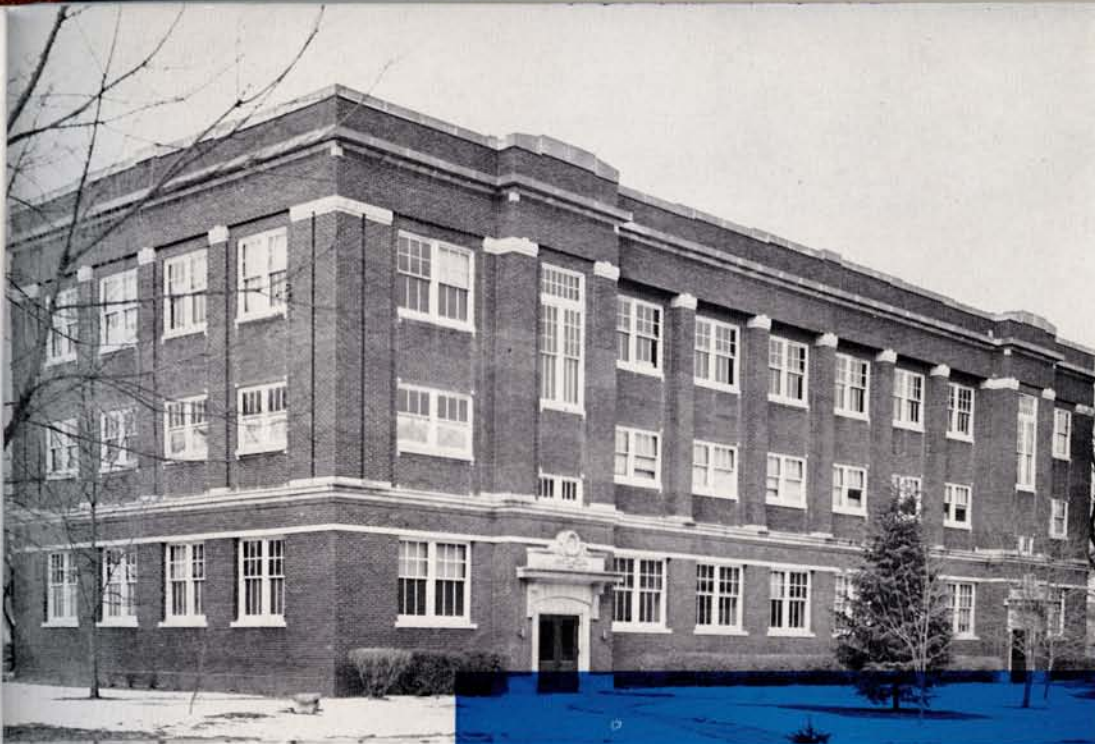

Leonard Webb, for more than thirty-two years an employee of the college, left an enviable record. Never one to measure his service in terms of hours per day, he was always on hand when there was work to be done. Every student who has attended the college is indebted to men like Leonard Webb. The college will never have a more faithful nor more devoted employee.

Antelope

This group attempts to keep the budget on an even keel. Included on the business staff are left to right, Secretary Delores McConnel, Mildred Casey, first semester Business Manager Dick Urwiller, Bob Minor, and Business Manager for second semester, Harold Rowe.

Versatile satirist Jerry Drost desperately tries to uncover some brilliant idea for his forthcoming "Facts of Life" column.

Blue and Gold

Parliamentary procedure seems to be sadly lacking as Business Manager Bob Joy and Editor Bill Nelson try to out-talk one another. At least this shot proves they could and did work together in keeping the ball rolling.

To Sharon Peterson and Twila Martin fell the task of arranging the activities section, including the Christmas Carnival, Sadie Hawkins Day and many other events. Lou Casey found that getting all the organizations together for pictures was no small order, but she certainly came through in great shape.

We weren't able to get their pictures in time, but we want to send a big bouquet of "Thanks" to Alberta White, Wilma Linn, and Dian Wiley for all the timely help they gave us in typing some of our last-minute copy.

Coach Bill Morris gives Sports Editor Duane Nelson all the dope on one of the basketball pictures to be used in this year's book. "Whitey" did a great job in covering all the football and basketball games to give a lasting memory of the 1951-52 games.

Asst. Editor Meg Carroll lends a helping hand to Nita Frank, in charge of class pictures. Meg's invaluable aid was realized more than ever when she sprouted out with a case of the measles. She not only assisted in page lay-outs, but did much of the typing as well.

Bob Joy, business manager, must be writing on the "credit" side of the ledger according to the smile on advertising manager, Phyllis Gray's face. Bob not only sold ads himself, but arranged for pictures, and made the layouts for his section as well.

Photographer for the Blue and Gold was Montie Lum. Montie is responsible for 95 per cent of the pictures in the book.

Staff Artist Jack Snyder discusses with Editor Bill Nelson the best possible color to use on the Division pages. The staff was very lucky to have such a fine artist working on the book.

Student Council

Homecoming activities, the gala Sadie Hawkin's Dance, the all-college, big-name Spring Dance, pep rallies, Friday-night juke-box dances, square dances, movies—these and other entertainment highlights are sponsored by the Student Council for the students.

In the new blue-and-gold meeting room in the Student Union, the 14 members of the Student Council meet every Monday night, with President Wayne Sintek presiding, to discuss all student business on the campus. Miss Leona Mae Failor and Mr. Harvey Cole serve as faculty advisors to the group.

At their weekly meetings the Student Governing Body tackles the various campus problems. At the right, Jane Waldo, Don Welch, Carol Harris, Wayne Sintek, Dave Jelden and Dr. Failor are in a Student Council election procedure.

Along with the honor of being a Council member goes a great responsibility. At the left, Arnold Jakubowski, Shirley Johnson, Mr. Cole, Harold Reck, Gwen Jordan and Loran Swanson study similar budgets in a financial meeting.

Jim Doody, Bill Janssen, Dave Mills, Patty Asher, and Gerald Reck discuss the advantages of "Help Week" over "Hell Week."

Womens League

Members of the 1951-52 Women's League Council include: Vernetta Carlson, Irma Novy, Gwen Jordon, Janice Phelps, Marge Peterson, Dean Alice Robinson, President Helen Oye, Jane Waldo, Rose Christensen, Pat Faherty, Helen Burhoop, Carolyn Sanderman, Jan Mitchell and Barbara Walker.

The College Women's league, an organization for all women on the campus, meets on the second Tuesday of each month. The Women's League Council, the governing body of the league, is made up of representatives from the classes, the religious organizations, and dormitory, town girls and the officers.

Men's and Women's Leagues sponsored a coke hour for the freshmen and new students the first of the year. The meetings held included a Christmas Tea, a one-act play, presentation of mid-year graduates, book review, a spring style show, movies, and a Mother's Day Tea.

Mens League

Men's League President Chuck Lindley and Dean Stutheit discuss a league problem over a cup of coffee in the Union.

Men's League, the organization of all the men on the campus, was active this year under Charlie Lindley. Meetings were held each month at which problems such as Selective Service were discussed, and motion pictures and other entertainment was presented. The League sponsored a picnic at Fort Kearney this spring.

Other officers elected with Chuck were Harold Reck, Vice President; Al Smith, Secretary; and Don Hill, Treasurer.

Among other activities of the League were welcoming the freshmen during Freshmen Orientation Week, monthly meetings for the League Council, and the presentation of a plaque to the winner of the Intra-Mural Basketball League.

These happy faces at a typical Men's League Meeting have just heard a talk by Dean Stutheit. The Dean explained to them how to take advantage of the College Deferment Law.

The Men's League Council is composed of representatives from various organizations. Members included (Seated): Bob Busteed, Don Hill, Chuck Lindley, Gerald Reck, and Ted Jamson. Standing: Randy Witt, Harold Rowe, Wayne Walker, Dewaine Alcorn, Bill Janssen, Darrell Lenz, Joe Davenport, and Ron Schmid.

Sigma Tau Delta is the Xi Beta chapter of the national honorary English fraternity. The Annual Christmas Dinner for actives and alumni is the highlight of the social activities. Professor C. T. Ryan was the speaker this year.

Meetings include book reviews, discussions, and speakers on the English language and literature.

Each spring the fraternity publishes the Antler, a literary magazine of original compositions of the students on the campus. The fraternity sponsors a freshman essay contest; the two best essays are published in the Antler and medals are awarded to their authors.

Inter Frat-Sorority Council

Ted Jamson, jovial Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Council president, presides over the smiling faces of Sharon Peterson, Delores Johnson, Jane Waldo, Patty Asher, Dick Walker, Irma Novy, Jim Doody and Mr. Welch, (faculty sponsor).

To the Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Council falls the task of controlling and regulating activities of the social fraternities and sororities. The group consists of ten members—two from each organization. The council supervises Rush Week, as well as the entire pledge period. This year's Council did a great job in promoting "Help Week" as a substitute for "Hell Week" on the Kearney College Campus.

In February the Colhecons staged a fashion show in Case Hall. The feature was a mock wedding in which Virginia Flower and Pete Kyros were "married", with Helen Burhoop and Duane Nelson as attendants, and Dr. Fox as "father of the bride."

Sigma Theta Epsilon

Sigma Theta Epsilon is the national religious fraternity for Methodist men under the leadership of President Jack Snyder. To create a more intimate Christian fellowship among men of Methodist preference and to organize life around Jesus Christ as the Master of Life is the goal to which the fraternity strives.

Among the members of the fraternity are listed many leaders of the religious and social life of the campus.

The meaning of the arrow meant everything to the Deltas as they pledged their hearts and loyalty to the Delta Pi Beta Sorority. During the year they carried out their aims of fellowship, scholarship, and leadership.

The Deltas welcomed their alums at a breakfast Homecoming Day. After the breakfast they attended the football game in a body. Climaxing the activities of the day was the coronation of Patty Asher as Homecoming Queen.

One of the highlights of the year was the impressive Holly Ball which was held December 14. Patty Asher, first semester president, was crowned Holly Queen.

Pledging activities began with a Rush Breakfast with Jerre Howell, the second semester president, presiding. Following the breakfast was the Preference Dinner where the proud "Mothers" pinned the yellow and white ribbons on their "Daughters."

During "Help Week" Delta Pledges carried out such activities as the cleaning of Case Hall, relieving Mrs. Mathews of many tedious and time-consuming duties, and washing the windows in the Student Union.

Following the departure of their first semester sponsor, Miss Glo Rose Mitchell, the Deltas chose Mrs. Helen Wallace and Mrs. Bernice Mantor to guide them through the remainder of one of the most successful years in the sorority's history.

Prospective pledges and guests were entertained by the Deltas at their Holly Ball. After a festive banquet the floor was cleared for an enjoyable dance.

Patty Asher, first semester president, was crowned Holly Queen.

Members of the Sigma Theta Phi Sorority, 1951-52, enjoyed one of the most successful years in the history of the sorority. In guiding the school activities, four Sigmas—Jane Waldo, Gwen Jordan, Shirley Johnson, and Carol Harris—were representatives on the Student Council.

The Sigma Alumnae Association entertained the actives at the first social function of the year—a brunch held at the Country Club, Homecoming Day. The sorority entered a float and campus display in the celebration.

At the annual Christmas Carnival dance, Jane Waldo was elected queen of the carnival. Sigmagrams, a traditional concession of the sorority, were again popular at the carnival.

As a pre-rush party, the Triangle Ranch Dance provided entertainment for prospective pledges. The Student Union decorations featured a western theme. Guests wore western garb suitable to the occasion.

Delores Johnson, president in 1952, was presented as the Sigma Sweetheart at the Rush Dinner at the Fort Kearney Hotel.

Highlight of the year was preference day. Thirty-nine girls stated their preference for Sigma Theta Phi. At the preference dinner, decorated with the valentine motif, the pledges received their pink and white pledge ribbons, which were worn for the remainder of the pledgeship.

At informal initiation the girls dressed as prisoners and even carried their balls and chains with them. After four weeks of pledgeship, the pledges became active Sigmas.

The culmination of another successful year for the Sigmas was the annual spring formal in the Crystal Ball Room.

Delores Johnson was proclaimed the '51-'52 Sigma Sweetheart.

Jane Waldo is drawing up some refreshment at the Triangle-Bar Dance while Gwen Jordan, Don Hill, Delores Johnson, Rex Helleberg and Gerald Reck watch. Guest star Roy Rogers wasn't a bit camera-shy.

Rush and pledge weeks were a whirlwind of activities for the Zeta Chi Alpha Sorority. Under the capable leadership of Irma Novy, the sorority began its rushing with its annual Cinderella Ball.

Cinderella in the Zeta Chi Alpha Sorority did not lose her glass slipper. Mary Lou Martin, crowned queen of the Cinderella Pre-Rush Ball, symbolized the personal qualities and high ideals of the sorority.

From that time, until pledge season, the actives provided entertainment for the rush-ees. The Rush dinner, with tunes and palm trees, reminiscent of Hawaii, was held in the Planeview Cafe. When twenty-two girls preferenced Zeta, the fun began. The pledges were proud of their lavender and white pledge pins. The "daughters" entertained their "mothers" at a dinner in the Midway Hotel. After the trials of informal initiation, and the candle light formal initiation, the pledges were able at last to call themselves, "Zetas."

The annual Mother-Daughter Tea; spring dance at the Fort Kearney Hotel; and the long-awaited slumber party were highlights of the remainder of the year. However, the beginning of the year had its bright spots, too. A picnic was held behind Green Terrace in the fall. Members welcomed alumni at the Homecoming dinner, and were proud to announce the sorority's campus display, "Mistress Mary," had won third prize. The Zetas entertained the other sororities at the Tri-Sorority party. Musical jingles were unscrambled, while guest cavorted as famous musicians. Gift exchanging, breakfast, and church marked the Christmas season.

Each Zeta remembers fondly all the good times and fellowship of 1952. Leaders of the sorority were Irma Novy, president; Joyce Psota, vice-president; Maxine Overturf, secretary; Ardith Snell, treasurer; and Dr. Leona Mae Failor, sponsor.

The Zetas' Cinderella dance was given as a Pre-Rush party. A part of the guests are shown above dancing to the Collegians' music.

Mary Lou Martin is crowned the 1951 Cinderella by Cinderella 1950, Cletis Henry, as Zeta President Irma Novy beams approvingly.

The year 1951-52 was one of prominence for the members of the oldest fraternity on the campus, Phi Tau Gamma.

First semester activities included Homecoming and the Annual Winter Ball. Phi Tau Gamma carried off double honors in the Homecoming celebration; both the float, a giant "Mother Goose" shoe, and the campus display, a tufted wishing well, took first place awards.

The Alumni Homecoming Banquet was held at the Crystal Ballroom. Highlights of the evening were the presentation of a plaque to James Rich, the first Phi Tau Chancellor (1915), and the announcement of the coming formation of a Phi Tau Gamma Alumni Association.

December 1, the annual Phi Tau Winter Ball was held in the Crystal Ballroom. Music was furnished by Ellis Frazer and his band. During intermission, Professor C. T. Ryan was presented the fraternity's first honorary membership.

Early in the second semester, following Rush Week, 24 men chose Phi Tau Gamma as their preference. The preference dinner was held February 17. It was followed by four weeks of pledgship; culminating with the informal and formal initiations. This year Phi Tau Gamma instituted "Help Week" to replace "Hell Week." Numbered among the pledge duties were blood donations, house-painting, snow-shoveling and sign painting.

The 37th Anniversary Ball, held May 3, climaxed the fraternity's activities of the 1951-52 school year.

Phi Taus had the majority on the Student Council, with Vice-President Harold Reck and five other members. Bill Janssen, Don Welch, and Dave Weeks were president of the Seniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, respectively. The fraternity was well-represented in all organizations and athletic teams.

First semester officers: Chancellor, Ted Jamson; Vice-Chancellor, Bill Hasemeyer; Secretary, Bob Engler; Treasurer, Bill Janssen. Second semester officers: Chancellor, Gerald Reck; Vice-Chancellor, Bill Janssen; Secretary, Bob Engler; Treasurer, Randy Witt.

The annual spring dance closed a successful year for the Caledonians of 1951 and 1952. During the first semester, the fraternity, led by Dick Walker as president, held its Alumni Homecoming banquet and traditional Bowery Ball. At the Homecoming dinner, a plaque was presented to Mr. Kenneth Carlson, sponsor of the fraternity for six years, as thanks for his guidance. Mr. William Lynn, new co-sponsor of the fraternity was introduced to the alumni, and a program by the members completed the evening's entertainment.

The annual Bowery Ball was held this year at the 1733 Ballroom with the Sam Donaly orchestra providing the music. Characteristic costumes and decorations brought back the atmosphere of the Gay Nineties.

The second semester was ushered in by the pledging season. The Caledonian Smoker was held in the college cafeteria. Magic by Al Waddell and music by the Culliganaires entertained the prospective pledges during the evening.

Thirty-five pledges attended the preference dinner at the Fort Kearney Hotel. Speakers of the evening were Dr. Stout and Mr. Carlson. The pledging was then in full swing and after four weeks of special assignments and duties, informal initiation brought it to a close. Formal initiation, consisting of a dinner and ritual ceremony, was held at the Fort Kearney Hotel.

After this event, preparations were started for a spring dance which was as successful as the "Shipwreck Party" of the year before.

Officers of the Caledonian Fraternity for the first semester were: Dick Walker, President; Loran Swanson, Vice-President; Don Nelson, Treasurer; and Dale Van Wormer, Secretary. Chuck Lindley was elected president for the second semester and Duane Nelson replaced Don Nelson as treasurer.

The Culliganaires greet the Phi Taus and guests at the Winter Dance at which the fraternity entertained prospective pledges.

Above is a portion of the approximately 250 persons who danced to Ellis Frazer's music at the Pre-Rush Dance.

Chancellor Teddy Jamson presents the certificate of membership to Phi Tau Gamma's first honorary member, Professor C. T. Ryan.

Antelopes Win Opener 20-19

A green, but hustling Antelope squad made its 1951 debut by squeezing out a tight win over Friends U. of Wichita, Kansas, the visitors' third loss in ten years. Senior linemen Bill Hasemeyer and Dick Ellis were chosen to captain the Kearney squad in the opener.

Kearney scored first in a 27-yard pass from Ed Staab to Herman Hinkle. Cecil Stutzman's conversion attempt failed. This score came after a sustained drive sparked by the running of Elm, Staab and Lenz.

Shortly after the visitors scored on a short end sweep by Harris, following an Antelope fumble on the Kearney 8-yard line.

Downing of Friends took a lateral from Harris and raced 80 yards for a TD on the second half kick-off. The visitors gained the lead 5 minutes later on Harris's 73-yard scoring jaunt and their only successful extra point try. The score at this point was Friends 19—Kearney 13.

Late in the third quarter, Lenz and Elm sparked a Kearney drive to the Friends' 29-yard line. From this point freshman End Glenn Hinkle scored on a deceptive end-around play. Stutzman's conversion gave Kearney their margin.

Neither team scored in the fourth quarter, giving the Antelopes a 20-19 opening game win.

Kearney Drops NCC Opener to Hastings

The Antelopes got their first taste of Conference competition by dropping a rugged game to the Hastings Broncos.

Kearney dominated first half play, leading 7-0 at intermission on Ted Jamson's 76 yard scoring jaunt. During the second half the tables were turned, as Hastings powered to three touchdowns. The visitors' attack was sparked by half-back Bill Beck and quarterback Chuck Stickles, the former scoring 2 TD's.

The Antelopes played this game without Staab, Webb, James and Leggott, who were out with injuries.

Antelopes Edge Plainsmen, 21-20

After spotting the Methodist eleven a 19-0 first quarter lead, the Antelopes, lead by Elm and Staab, roared back to a 19-13 margin at the half.

It wasn't until late in the fourth quarter that the hard tackling of the Kearney forwards payed off in a fumble, with Fyfe covering on the Plainsmen five. Steady Ted Jamson cut over the left side for the tying T.D.

Cecil (the Toe) Stutzman split the uprights with the soggy pigskin to give Kearney a 1-point lead as the gun sounded. Peterson, Shaffer, Bachman, Fyfe, and Webb led the Kearney line as they stymied the last-half Wesleyan attack.

Dick Elm arrives too late as an Antelope is downed on the 9 yard line.

Antelopes Score Homecoming Victory

After their smashing Homecoming victory the jubilant Antelopes hoisted Coach Foster to their shoulders and paraded off the field.

For the first time since 1947, the Antelopes treated the annual Homecoming crowd to a gridiron victory. The victims were the Peru Bobcats, who came into the game the leading favorites to win NCC championship honors. A highly productive second quarter, in which three TD's were scored, enabled Kearney to take the upset win. Before a large, happy crowd, the Antelopes showed some of the best football seen here in several years. The game was played in ideal football weather.

The first quarter was a battle of punts and fumbles. At the outset of the second quarter the Kearneyites marched 68 yards to score. Jamson squirmed over from the 2-yard line after passes by Baker and Staab had put the Antelopes deep in Peru territory.

After Taylor's pass interception and Staab's quick kick, Kearney recovered a Peru fumble on the Bobcat's 25-yard line. From that point Staab passed and ran the Antelopes to another TD. Ed ran the last 4 yards for the score.

Just before time ran out in the first half, a 64 yard kick by Herman Hinkle put Peru deep in their own territory. The Bobcats fumbled again, and Big Bill Shaffer recovered on the 5-yard line. Elm plunged over from the 4-yard line to give Kearney an 18-0 lead. Stutzman booted his only successful extra point.

The second half found Peru desperately rallying. Sparked by Thiesfeldt and Wilson, they brought the margin to 19-14. From that point on Kearney's defense proved equal to the task. The game ended with Kearney on Peru's 15-yard line. It was a sweet victory for the Kearney team and the Homecoming throng.

NSTC Slaps Midland

Kearney scored its second NCC win over a light, but spirited Midland team. After trailing by 7-0 at the half, the Antelopes pulled the stops in the third quarter to score three touchdowns.

The visitor's first-half tally came on an 8-yard Johnson to Boles pass. The TD play culminated an 85-yard march. Early in the third quarter, Staab raced 52 yards to Midland's 3-yard line, after Kivlighn had intercepted a Midland pass. Three plays later Elm cracked over from the 1-yard line.

The second score came when Webb blocked a Midland punt on the 10-yard line. Doyle Fyfe recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. The Antelopes finished their scoring flurry a few minutes later after the visitors fumbled on their own 18-yard line.

A Staab to Glen Hinkle pass was good for a TD from that point. Cecil "The Toe" Stutzman split the uprights on all three conversion attempts.

A fourth quarter score by Midland's Eaton was anti-climactic as the Antelopes sewed up their third win of the season.

Wayne Outlasts Kearney, 26-20

On a miserably wet night the Wayne Wildcats squeezed out a 26-20 win over the Antelopes. Sparked by Kane and Ohlund, Wayne rolled up a 26-0 lead during the second and third quarters. At that point Kearney took over. Paced by Staab's passing and running the Antelopes scored three quick TD's. Baker, Staab and Elm all hit pay dirt. Wayne was able to freeze the ball following the final Kearney score. This game was the last home game for the season. The Antelopes, though they lost, put on a great exhibition during the fourth quarter.

The delegation of Kearney fans to Doane had a long afternoon as their team absorbed a sound trouncing.

Antelopes Edge Chadron

Cecil Stutzman's educated toe gave the Antelopes a 14-12 win over Chadron. Two quick aerial thrusts were good for Kearney touchdowns. Two Staab passes, 34 yards to H. Hinkle, and 29 yards to Baker accounted for the Kearney scores. Other than these two plays the Antelope offense sputtered throughout the game.

Chadron scored the first TD of the game. Later, after Kearney's scoring flurry, they came back to make the score 14-12. The Antelope's defense, led by Steuckrath, Fyfe, Elm, Peterson and Prosser, was the leading factor in our winning the game.

Doane 46; Kearney 19

In the season's finale, the Antelopes traveled to Doane College. On a good football day, the Doane Tigers ran to a 46-19 win. Their fast balanced offense enabled them to roll up their 46 point total before Kearney could score. The passing of Anderson and the running of Zamba, Chapman and Summers paced the Doane attack.

Late in the fourth quarter Elm, Baker and Lindquist scored touchdowns for the Antelopes. Staab's passes were largely responsible for the belated Kearney comeback. Although the game was a dismal climax to the season, the Antelopes emerged with a respectable 5-3 win, loss showing.

Don Welch and Doc Jeldon treated the crowd to their version of the Hastings Bronco during the half-time of the Kearney - Hastings clash.

Activities

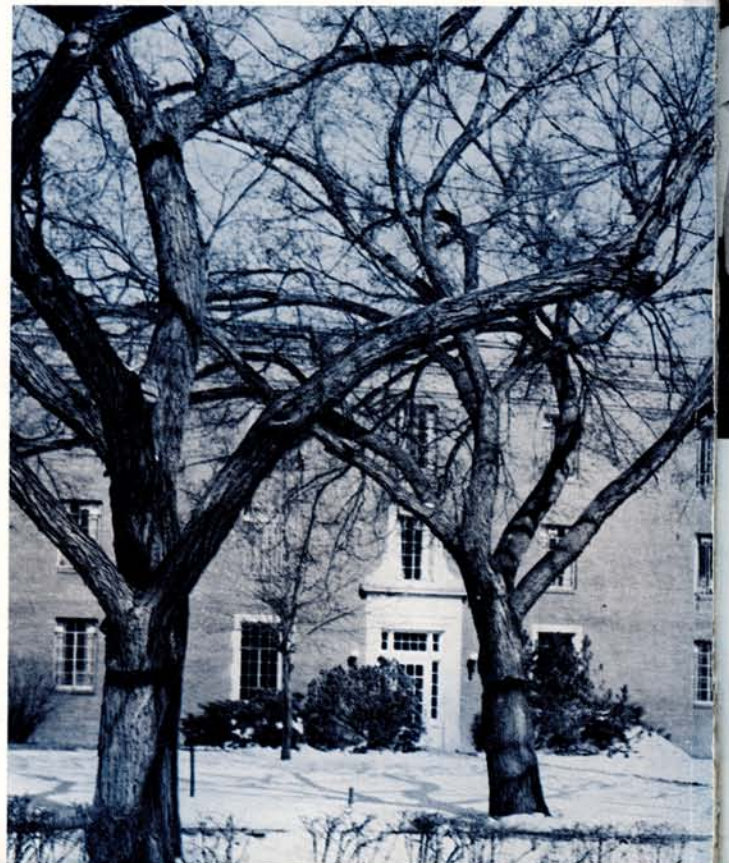

Extra-curricular activities form another integral part of life on the campus. From all-school celebrations to Hour Dances to holding hands—these all are an important part of Kearney State life.

. . . Night

Any night of the week one can find scenes such as the one pictured at the left. One of the more pleasant sights of the campus are the good nights in front of Case Hall.

Student Union

That ever-ready smile that always greets you at the Union belongs to Mrs. Helen Wallace, director. Regardless of the fact that this is her first year on the campus, Helen's amiable nature and her ability to smooth over the rough edges, has made the Union a favorite hang-out for students and faculty.

"Egad! You trumped your partner's ace!" At any hour you can always find a fourth for Mr. Culbertson's favorite game.

"Nice try!" "Good shot!" Caviling and complimenting in a continual stream greet all as they enter the Union. This uproar stems from the many ping-pong fans that wield the paddles in the Union from eight in the morning until closing time. The Union sponsors a tournament every year, and an award is given to the winning player.

Those dreamy eyes belong to Jane Waldo as she dances with her fiance, Gerald Reck, at one of the many Union dances.

Pete Kyros serves some "early morning" coffee and sinkers to Montie Lum, Jack Leithoff, Ed Murray and Bill Watkins. The "G-Man" always had a joker to pull in helping the 8:00 o'clock students clear the "fog" in order to find their way to class more easily.

Student Union

Bill Shaffer, Kent Brestel, Loran Swanson and Pete Kyros show off their attire for the yearly Halloween shin-dig at the Union. Shaffer's shorts were really eye-catchers, but it was "Miss" Swanson who really had troubles, as all evening long the freshmen guys tried to get one of those "after-the-dance dates."

This shot is proof-positive that the Union staff really goes "all out" to cooperate in making every dance or party a success. Here; Alice Clark, Mrs. Wallace, Bill Shaffer, Pete Kyros, Lou Casey, Betty Ziggafos and Patsy Johnson get in the mood for the Leap Dance where the guys and gals switched their apparel for the evening's frolic.

Homecoming

Pep rally, campus displays, floats, parade and alumnae gatherings, all made Homecoming 1951 one to long be remembered. After weeks of planning the Eve of Homecoming finally arrived. A pep rally at the Student Union with the burning of the "P" started the swirl of activities with a crackle.

At the break of dawn Homecoming morning the campus began to buzz with activity when the different organizations began setting up their campus displays and putting the final touches on floats. The Phi Tau Gamma fraternity copped first on their display, with the Newman Club placing second, and the Zeta Alpha Chi sorority, third.

Alums were entertained by the Delta Pi Beta and Sigma Theta Phi sororities at breakfasts.

It wasn't only brains and brawn that won the Homecoming game this year, included was a school spirit that really paid off. In the top picture the Cals prepare their float in accordance with the story-book theme . . . Truckloads of boxes to add fuel to the fire were rushed in to help the rally become an even greater success . . . Game Captains; Peterson, Ellis, Jameson, and Hase-meyer, join forces to lead the crowd around the bonfire in a yell—did right well at it too.

Below are shown two of the many great displays to be found throughout the campus that went a long way in boosting the boys to a big upset.

The lead banner in the Homecoming Parade gives the clue to the theme of this year's pageant.

"Storybook Review" was the theme that was carried out all during Homecoming. "The Old Woman in the Shoe" was the idea that won first place for the Phi Taus in float competition in the parade which began at 1:00. The Delta Pi Beta sorority got second with the same idea. Dog Patch was the scene the Caledonian fraternity used to win third. The Sigma Theta Phi sorority gained honorable mention for their portrayal of "Ding Dong Dell."

Last year's queen, Mrs. Alta Hubbert Minnick, presents the football to Referee Dick Pulliam at the opening of the game, as Dick Ellis and his opposing Captain look on.

Homecoming . . .

Above are just two of the many floats that the various organizations entered. After giving the townspeople a pre-view, the groups then took a tour around the track. Looks like the prophecy of the Delta gals was right "on the mark."

After the game a Homecoming reception was held in the Student Union for all Kearney grads.

. . . October 20

Pity the poor students who were forced to make a decision in voting for one of these gals to become their Queen. Standing: Lil Plambeck and Bev Ambler. Seated: Dramey Storch, Jane Waldo, Pat Asher and Nita Frank.

The Queen and her attendants are escorted down the floor in the Grand March.

One of the highlights of the day was the defeat of Peru on the gridiron. After the game the alums had a coffee hour at the Student Union. Alumnae dinners were given by the Cals, Phi Taus, and Zetas.

Ellis Frazer provided the music for the dance which was held in the gym. The coronation of Patty Asher by President Cushing as 1951 Homecoming Queen climaxed the activities of the day.

Her Majesty, Miss Patty Asher

The game is over, we won and the music is wonderful. What more could you ask for?

No, it isn't a scene from Dogpatch, take another look and the faces will be more familiar. It's the contest winners of the Sadie Hawkins dance. Student Council President Wayne Sintek presents awards to: Patty Asher, best "Schmoo"; Loren Swanson, Pappy Yokum; Evelyn Urban, Moonbeam McSwine; Mori Amiri, the best beard; Mrs. Helen Wallace, Sadie Hawkins; Bob Joy, best recipe for Kickapoo Joy Juice; Rose Hibberd, Mammy Yokum; and Pat Johnson, Daisy May.

Sadie Hawkins Day . . .

In case you fellows hadn't noticed dancing was the main feature of the evening. Every one from Lonesome Polecat Pollman, to Mr. and Mrs. "Schmoo" Woodruff had a great time jumpin' to the music of Forrest Roland and his orchestra.

The Line-Up: "Daisy May" contestants await the decision of the judges. Put those eyes back in their sockets. Need we say more?

. . November 16

"Don't be bashful, get up here," says Master of Ceremonies Wayne Sintek, or as he seeks out more contestants for the "best costume" event of the program.

Eligible bachelors were "ketched" by eager fems for the week of Sadie Hawkins, and cokes, smokes, and coffee were paid for by the female escorts. Beards sprouted and plans were made for costumes to wear to the big dance, which was held in the Student Union, Friday evening. Admission to the dance was two cents for every inch of the couple's waists combined.

Prizes were awarded for the best Dogpatch characters of the evening, and kickapoo joy juice was provided for the dancers by the Student Council.

Mrs. Mantor checks the beard of Les Grant, as Contenders Ken Smyers and Mori Amiri look on.

And to think they served coffee! The Union staff really livened up the party with their "exquisite" costumes, especially "Sadie Hawkins" Wallace.

Christmas Carnival . . .

Their Majesties, the Christmas King and Queen, Gerald Reck and Jane Waldo.

Concessions of all types, a water show, skits, a dance, and a king and queen made the Christmas Carnival one of the main events of the year.

On December 7 the halls of the administration building became a carnival ground complete with barkers, shooting galleries, and fortune tellers. When the concessions closed, the auditorium became the center of interest. Skits were presented by the different organizations of the campus and prizes were awarded the best ones. The Delta Pi Beta Sorority won first, with the Zeta Chi Alpha Sorority second, and the Sigma Theta Phi Sorority placed third.

Next on the agenda was the dance at the Student Union with music by Ellis Frazer and his band. Featured event of the evening was the coronation of Gerald Reck as Christmas Carnival King and Jane Waldo, the Christmas Carnival Queen.

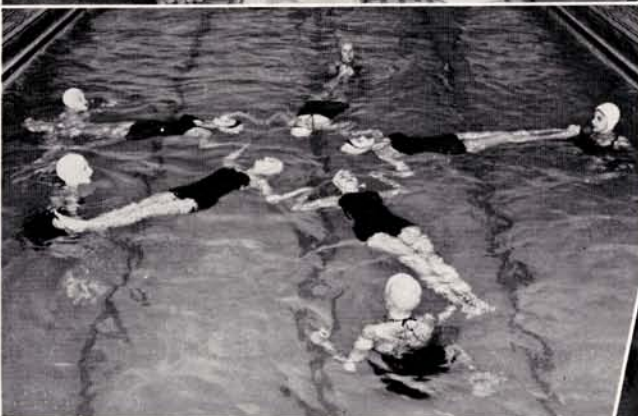

. . . December 7

A real "mellodrama" was presented by the Deltas as our hero (hurrah!) bids the villain (hiss) on his way, and saves the poor innocent girl from being evicted. Alice Clark, Gloria Francis and Bev Brown put on a great performance that brought back the good old days.

"Ahh, I see for you a great fortune," says Gordon "Swami" Adams. By the expression on the faces of Nancy Pscherer and Irma Novy it sounds like a "real deal," but Dick Urwiller acts as though he's a disbeliever.

The Naiads' contribution to the carnival was an excellent exhibition of skill and timing in their various scenes of the water ballet.

These industrious gals of the Sigma Theta Phi Sorority furnished a very efficient messenger service for the evening. Their motto—"If you can't find your partner in this crowd, send him a Sigma-gram."

Dramatics

In the fall play, "Mother Is A Freshman," Dick Hawes renounces Marilyn Eck's affection.

Bob Joy has a disapproving look on his face as Alberta Byrum says "No" to that good-night kiss.

The cast of "Mother Is A Freshman" seems almost entirely oblivious to the entrance of Betty Ziggafos, who played the title role.

In the final scene of the fall play everything turns out happily as Betty Ziggafos and Earnest Quitmeyer shake hands as Dick Hawes, Dave Jelden and Marilyn Eck look on.

Dramatics

Kay Harrington, Marilyn Eck and Vera Collison look on disapprovingly at one of Dave Jelden's typical college antics.

Radio and Oratory

Dean Wallace and Johnny Mitchell present the awards to the winners of the All-College Oratory Contest: Betty Ziggafos, woman's oratory; Paul Wagner, peace oration; Marilyn Eck, peace oration; and Bill Allen, men's oratory.

Moe Milliken conducts the daily college program as Chief Engineer Mel Waddles watches the controls.

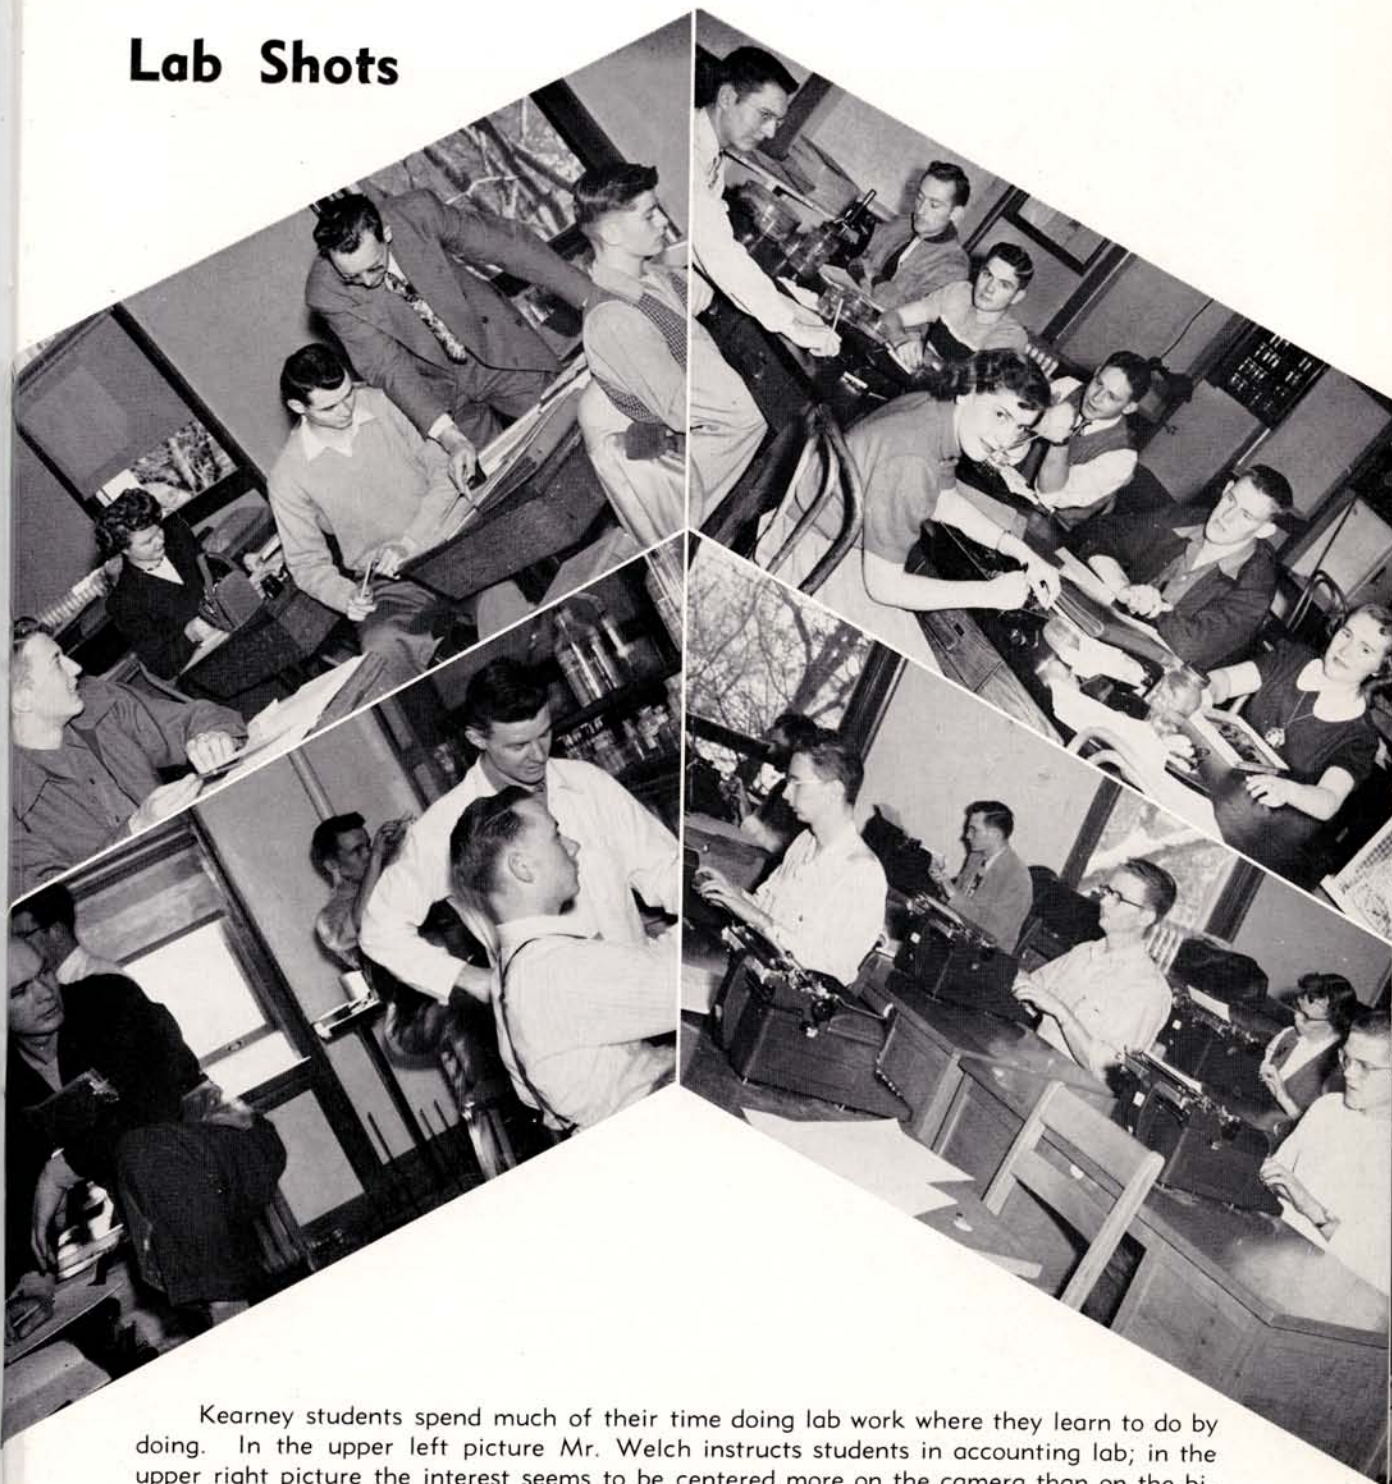

Speech Department Head Harold Ahrendts interviews Miriam Drake of the speech department and Professor C. T. Ryan. That's Dick Anderson in the control room.

Clark Woodruff announces the feature story on the college program with Bob Clark and Mel Waddles as engineers.

Lab Shots

Leap Dance

The Leap Dance was a special affair held in 1952. Among the handsome "men" and beautiful "gals" were Pat Case, Wayne Sintek, Pat Faherty, Arnold Jakubowski, Ruthann Carns, Chuck Skov, Barbara Manfull, Gordan Brannon, Sharon Peterson, Jim Knapp, Norma Maser, and, that matron of them all "Mrs." Stanley Pollman.

The special Leap Year Dance was a gala affair well attended by "male women" and "female men." Shown above is a characteristic portion of the crowd. "Grandma" in the foreground is Switzerland's contribution to Kearney State, Werner Krebsner.

Last But Not Least

Everybody enjoys the Hour Dance sponsored by the fraternities and sororities during pledgship.

One of the friendliest faces on the campus belongs to Maxine Boldt, secretary to the Dean of Men.

Everybody eagerly awaits the action as Pledges Vern Koeppen, Dave Mills, Russell Love and Dave Weeks "assume the position" in a typical fraternity board session.

The "Antelope," College newspaper, comes out every Friday noon. Shown is part of the weekly crowd which gather 'round to read the latest "scoop."

Advertising

To Kearney's friendly merchants, who have lent us a helping hand by their fine response to our ad salesmen, we say with great gratitude, "Thanks for everything."
