

FROM EUGENICS TO ETHICS:

Lessons for Today's Medical Community

PANELISTS:

Patricia Heberer-Rice, PhD, MA,
United States Holocaust
Memorial and Museum

Matthew K. Wynia, MD, MPH,
University of Colorado Center for Bioethics and Humanities

Panel Discussion | Tuesday, February 17th | noon – 1 p.m. | Zoom

- McGoogan Library presents a thought-provoking panel, exploring the troubling legacy of eugenics in medicine and its enduring impact on healthcare ethics.
- Matthew K. Wynia, MD, MPH and Patricia Heberer-Rice, PhD, MA, will discuss how misguided “science” once justified harm, and how those historical practices influenced the medical education, policy, and the ethical frameworks that guide contemporary care.
- The discussion will highlight lessons for today’s clinicians and researchers, emphasizing the importance of equity, autonomy, and justice in medical decision-making.

Scan to register for the panel